

Kidz Biz

Crazy Fact!

An echidna's hind feet face backwards – its toes are where your heels are!

Tick the footprint belonging to an echidna.

Helpful clue: echidnas have long front claws for breaking into termite nests and a long claw on the back feet for grooming their spikes.

Fit the right word from the list below into the amazing echidna facts. If you need extra clues, alphabetical order might help.

eggs

digging

eighteen

swimmers

milk

spines

1. Echidnas have claws for _____.
2. Echidnas are one of only two mammals that lay _____.
3. An echidna has an _____ centimetre long tongue.
4. Echidna babies need _____ to help them grow. It oozes from special glands.
5. An echidna's _____ are made of the same thing as your hair and fingernails.
6. Echidnas are excellent _____.

Instant Artist

Use the grid to help you to draw an echidna.

Echidnas eat termites.

Also draw some termites for your echidna to eat.

